On August 11, 2016, CoC members met with a consultant/facilitator to discuss project funding and rankings. The CoC took an inventory of current housing programs and determined that there is a gap in housing for single, long-term homeless who do not present with a disabling condition. A recent study showed that the occupancy for a transitional housing program was consistently below 100%. The CoC decided to right-size the transitional housing program (WHNP 1) and reallocate to where there is a gap.
